Wholey's Announces Summer Crab Festival July 26 – August 4, 2010

July 16, 2010

At Wholey's, summertime means crab-time and what better reason to celebrate! Come sample and learn all about crab at Wholey's Summer Crab Festival from July 26 through August 4, 2010.

Find out first-hand about Alaskan King crab, Alaskan Snow crab, Blue crab, and Dungeness crab – the best ways to cook them, the similarities and differences between them, and discover why crab is one of the most mouth-watering, healthful, and effortless summer meals you can make for your family!

Amongst the fun atmosphere in the market, you will find special sales and offers on crab, samples to taste, demonstrations, balloon animals for the kids, entertainment on the weekends, and Wholey's will even share some of their favorite family recipes!

Wholey's is located in the heart of the Strip District, 1711 Penn Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15222, tel: (412) 391-3737, www.wholey.com. Open 7 days a week.
